

General Terms and Conditions of Purchase

(Updated April 2017)

1. Acceptance – Order of Precedence - Modification

This Purchase Order is for the purchase of goods, services, or goods and services described on the face of this document (collectively, "Goods") and is issued by the purchasing entity identified on the face of this document ("Purchaser") to the entity providing the Goods identified on the face of this document ("Supplier"). This Purchase Order is deemed accepted upon the earlier of the return of the acknowledgment copy of this Purchase Order or the commencement of performance by Supplier. Purchaser rejects any additional or inconsistent terms or conditions offered by Supplier at any time, whether or not such terms or conditions materially alter this Purchase Order and irrespective of Purchaser's acceptance of or payment for Supplier's Goods. Any reference to Supplier's quotation, bid or proposal will not be deemed acceptance of any term, condition, or instruction contained in that document. No course of prior dealing or usage of the trade will be used to modify, supplement or explain any term herein. These terms and conditions together with the specifications, drawings, or other documents referred to on the face of this Purchase Order, or attached, or any documents incorporated by reference, supersede any prior or contemporaneous communications, representations, promises, or negotiations, whether oral or written, with respect to the subject matter of this Purchase Order. All contract documents related to this Purchase Order are to be interpreted together as one agreement. However, if there is an irreconcilable conflict among the provisions of those contract documents, the following order of precedence applies: (a) any consignment agreement; then (b) any master purchase agreement between the parties; then (c) any contract for labor services; then (d) the face of this Purchase Order and any supplemental terms included or incorporated by reference; then (e) these general Purchase Order provisions; and finally (f) other contract documents agreed to in writing by the parties and signed by Purchaser. No change to or modification of this Purchase Order will be binding upon Purchaser unless in writing, specifically identifying that it is amending this Purchase Order, and signed, or approved electronically, by an authorized representative of Purchaser. If Supplier becomes aware of any ambiguities, issues or discrepancies between this Purchase Order and any specification, design or other technical requirement applicable to this Purchase Order, Supplier will immediately submit the matter to Purchaser for resolution.

2. Delivery, Shipment and Packaging

- 2.1. Supplier will deliver Goods in accordance with the quantities and date(s) specified on this Purchase Order or the Purchase Order schedule releases. If delivery dates are not stated, Supplier will offer its best delivery date(s), which will be subject to acceptance by Purchaser. Unless otherwise directed, all Goods shipped in one day from and to a single location must be consolidated on one bill of lading or air waybill, as appropriate. Unless the Purchase Order (or a separate written agreement executed by Purchaser's authorized representative) requires Supplier to manufacture, ship, and/or provide only a specified quantity of Goods, this Order is a requirements contract under which Supplier is required to supply Purchaser's requirements. Purchaser's requirements may be 100% of Purchaser's requirement or a smaller percentage of Purchaser's requirements as agreed between Purchaser and Supplier. In all cases, however, Purchaser's requirements are determined by the needs of its customer, and market, economic, or other related conditions. Purchaser is not required to make payment for Goods delivered to Purchaser which are in excess of quantities specified in Purchaser's Purchase Order or Purchase Order scheduling releases.
 - 2.2. Time of delivery of the Goods is of the essence. Deliveries must be made both in the quantities and at the times specified by Purchaser. Supplier will, at its expense, deliver Goods by the most expeditious shipping method if the delivery schedule is endangered for any reason other than Purchaser's fault. If Goods are delinquent to Purchaser's requirements, Supplier will grant Purchaser first priority for Goods allocation and shipment. Purchaser reserves the right to reject, at no expense to Purchaser, all or any part of any delivery that varies from the quantity authorized by Purchaser for shipment. Supplier will not make any substitutions without Purchaser's prior written approval. All items will be packaged in accordance with Purchaser's instructions or, if none are specified, in accordance with good commercial practice in a manner sufficient to ensure receipt in an undamaged condition. Purchaser will not be liable for any discharge, spill or other environmental incident (including clean-up costs) involving any Goods shipped under this Purchase Order until received by Purchaser. All containers will be properly marked for identification per the instructions on this Purchase Order and contain a packing slip that details, at a minimum, the Purchase Order number(s), product part number, detailed product description, total number of boxes in shipment, quantity of product shipped, and final delivery address. Items shipped in advance of Purchaser's delivery schedule may be returned at Supplier's expense. For domestic shipments, if requested by Purchaser, and for all international shipments, Supplier will give notice of shipment to Purchaser when the Goods are delivered to a carrier for transportation. The Purchase Order number(s) must appear on all correspondence, shipping labels, and shipping documents, including all packing sheets, bills of lading and air waybills.
 - 2.3. All Goods, unless specifically exempted by the destination country's governing authorities, must be marked with the country of origin (manufacture) of the Goods in a conspicuous place as legibly, indelibly, and permanently as the nature of the article or container permits.
 - 2.4. Supplier will provide Purchaser with (a) the Harmonized Tariff Schedule number, country of origin information or certificates, manufacturer's affidavits, applicable free trade agreement ("FTA") certificates, and any other documents or information Purchaser may require to comply with international trade regulations or to lawfully minimize duties, taxes, and fees, and (b) FTA certificates for all Goods that qualify under one or more FTAs. Supplier will provide Purchaser all documents, records, and other supporting information necessary to substantiate the Goods' qualification under such FTA. Supplier will exert reasonable efforts to qualify the Goods under FTAs.
 - 2.5. Within one business day after Supplier delivers the Goods to the carrier, Supplier will send Purchaser a complete set of shipping documents including the commercial invoice, packing list, and air waybill or three original parts of the combined through bill of lading, clean without notation, necessary to release the Goods to Purchaser's custody.
- ## 3. Term and Notice of Delay
- 3.1. Unless this Purchase Order or master purchase agreement between the parties specifies otherwise, the initial term of this Purchase Order begins on the effective date or order date shown on this Purchase Order (the "Effective Date") and continues for twelve (12) consecutive months following the Effective Date (the "Initial Term"). Thereafter, this Purchase Order will automatically renew for successive terms of twelve (12) months each (each a "Renewal Term") unless Purchaser provides Supplier with a non-renewal notice at least sixty (60) days before the end of the Initial Term or any Renewal Term.
 - 3.2. Whenever anything delays or threatens to delay the timely performance of this Purchase Order, Supplier must immediately give notice to Purchaser of all relevant information with respect to such delay.

4. Excusable Delay (Force Majeure)

Any delay or failure of either party to perform its obligations shall be excused if and to the extent that the party is unable to perform due to Acts of God, restrictions, prohibitions, priorities or allocations imposed or actions taken by a governmental authority, or acts of war. Supplier's ability to sell Goods at a more advantageous price, sub-supplier and/or subcontractor disputes, or Supplier's economic hardship in buying materials or processing necessary for manufacture of the Goods will not constitute an excusable delay event. The party affected by an excusable delay will promptly provide notice to the other, explaining in detail the full particulars and expected duration of the excusable delay, and will use its best efforts to remedy the delay if it is capable of being remedied. If Supplier's delivery is delayed, Purchaser may, at Purchaser's sole option, cancel deliveries that had been scheduled during the excusable delay period or elect to extend the period of performance commensurate with the excusable delay period. If an excusable delay occurs that affects delivery of Goods to Purchaser, Supplier will allocate its available supply of Goods in a manner that assures Purchaser of at least the same proportion of Supplier's total output of Goods as was allocated to Purchaser prior to the excusable delay event. If delivery of any Goods is delayed for more than 30 days, Purchaser may, without liability, cancel all or any part of this Purchase Order.

5. Performance Assurance Plan

If Purchaser, in its sole discretion, determines there is a significant risk that Supplier will fail to meet its performance or delivery requirements under this Purchase Order, Purchaser may, in addition to any other rights or remedies available to Purchaser, require Supplier to perform under a Performance Assurance Plan. The Performance Assurance Plan may include specific reporting and performance requirements reasonably tailored to ensure Supplier's adequate performance under identified provisions of this Purchase Order. Any failure by Supplier to satisfy the terms of the Performance Assurance Plan is a material breach of this Purchase Order.

6. Shipping Terms, Title and Risk of Loss

- 6.1. If the Goods will be transported from Supplier's location in the U.S. to Purchaser's location in the U.S., unless otherwise specified on the face of this Purchase Order or in a separate agreement, Supplier must deliver the Goods F.O.B. Purchaser's location. When the F.O.B. point of delivery is Supplier's location, Supplier bears all risk of loss or damage to the Goods and title passes to Purchaser upon delivery of the Goods to the carrier designated or approved by Purchaser. When the point of delivery is Purchaser's location, Supplier bears all risk of loss or damage to the Goods and title passes to Purchaser upon delivery of the Goods at Purchaser's location.
 - 6.2. In all other cases, unless otherwise specified on the face of the Purchase Order or in a separate agreement, Supplier will deliver the Goods DAP (Incoterms®2010) at Purchaser's location. Title to Goods passes to Purchaser upon receipt at Purchaser's location.
 - 6.3. The foregoing does not relieve Supplier of any responsibility for hidden damages discovered after acceptance of the Goods. Notwithstanding 6.1 and 6.2 above, title and risk of loss to Goods subject to a consignment stock agreement pass upon release of the Goods from the consignment stock. Purchaser may direct Supplier to ship the Goods to Purchaser or to any third party designated by Purchaser.
- ## 7. Import/Customs Compliance
- 7.1. Supplier assumes all responsibility and liability for any shipments covered by this Purchase Order requiring any government import clearance. If government authorities declare or otherwise impose countervailing duties, antidumping duties, or retaliatory duties on the Goods imported under this Purchase Order, Purchaser reserves the right to terminate this Purchase Order in accordance with the Termination provisions of this Purchase Order. Supplier will be debited for any duties, fees, or freight incurred by Purchaser due to Supplier's failure to comply with the terms and conditions of this Purchase Order.
- ## 8. Drawback
- All drawback of duties, and rights thereto, related to duties paid by Supplier or Purchaser upon importation of the Goods or any materials or components that enter into the manufacture of the Goods will accrue to the exclusive benefit of Purchaser. Such duty drawback rights include rights developed by substitution and duty drawback rights obtained from sub-tier suppliers related to the Goods. Supplier will provide Purchaser with all documents, records, and other supporting information necessary to obtain any duty drawback, and will reasonably cooperate with Purchaser to obtain payment.

9. Offset

If Supplier is a non-U.S. entity, Supplier will assist Purchaser in obtaining credit from Supplier's government for the value of relevant Goods purchased hereunder to meet any present or future contractual offer or industrial benefit requirements imposed upon Purchaser or its subsidiaries or affiliates. Such assistance includes, but is not limited to, providing upon Purchaser's request evidence of the existence, value, content and other pertinent information relating to such purchases. Purchaser reserves the right to claim these credits for itself or third parties. If Supplier is a U.S. entity which awards any portion of the work hereunder to lower tier non-U.S. suppliers, Supplier will assign to Purchaser any credits obtained from the non-U.S. sub-tier supplier's government relating to this transaction and assist Purchaser in obtaining any such credits.

10. Purchaser-Supplied Materials, Tooling, Equipment and Technical Data

- 10.1. All tooling, equipment, dies, gauges, fixtures, molds, patterns and related technical data, software, drawings and other documentation for tooling, equipment or material, unless otherwise agreed to in the Purchase Order, furnished to Supplier, paid for by Purchaser or to be amortized over time in the Purchase Order and any replacement thereof, or any additions, attachments, accessories and repairs ("Purchaser Property"), are and will remain property of Purchaser and are held by Supplier on a bailment basis. Upon request by Purchaser, Supplier shall provide access to permit Purchaser to inspect the Purchaser Property and will segregate Purchaser Property from any other property of Supplier or its customers. Purchaser Property must be plainly marked as the property of Purchaser and shall be safely stored by Supplier. Supplier, at its own expense, shall keep Purchaser Property in good working condition and replace when necessary. Supplier must use Purchaser Property in a careful and safe manner and shall indemnify, defend and hold Purchaser completely harmless against any-and-all claims, liabilities, expenses and damages arising from or related to the installation, use, storage, or repair of the Purchaser Property. Upon request by Purchaser, Supplier must immediately release the Purchaser Property and prepare it for shipment or deliver it to Purchaser in the manner requested. Purchaser will assume the cost of delivery and will pay Supplier for this delivery amount. Supplier cannot hold or retain possession of Purchaser Property to secure payment owed for any reason other than this cost of delivery. Supplier is responsible for inspecting and determining that the Purchaser Property is in useable and acceptable condition.
- 10.2. Supplier must use the Purchaser Property solely for the production of the Goods under the Purchase Order and must not, without prior written consent of Purchaser, use or permit others to use Purchaser Property for any other purpose. Purchaser Property is intended for use at the Supplier's site only or as otherwise authorized in writing by Purchaser's authorized representative and, to the extent applicable, is subject to U.S. and other government export or re-export requirements. While in Supplier's control, Purchaser Property will be held at Supplier's risk, and Supplier is responsible for any loss, damage or destruction of Purchaser Property, and will be insured by Supplier at Supplier's expense in an amount equal to the replacement-value cost, with loss payable to Purchaser. Supplier assigns to Purchaser any claims for payment or loss of such Purchaser Property that Supplier might have against its insurer and Purchaser accepts this type of assignment. Supplier will not include the cost of any insurance for Purchaser Property in the prices charged under this Purchase Order. Supplier will return Purchaser Property or dispose of it at Purchaser's sole option in accordance with Purchaser's written directions. Purchaser makes no representations and disclaims all warranties (express or implied) with respect to Purchaser Property.

- 10.3. To the extent there is any tooling, equipment, dies, gauges, fixtures, molds, patterns and related technical data, software, drawings and other documentation for tooling, equipment or material used exclusively in connection with the manufacture of the Goods that is not Purchaser Property (collectively, "Supplier Property"), Supplier grants Purchaser an irrevocable option to take possession of and title to Supplier Property upon payment to Supplier of its net book value less any amounts that Purchaser has previously paid to Supplier for the most of such items, but less any amounts otherwise owing to Purchaser by Supplier; provided, however, that this option will not apply if Supplier Property is used to produce goods that are the standard stock of Supplier or if a substantial quantity of like goods are being sold by Supplier to others, and this option may only be exercised in connection with a termination of this Purchase Order under Section 23.1 by Purchaser.

11. Price

Supplier will furnish the Goods at the prices stated on the face of this Purchase Order. If prices are not stated on the face of this Purchase Order, Supplier will offer its lowest prices subject to written acceptance by Purchaser. Unless otherwise provided on the face of this Purchase Order, the prices include all packaging, applicable taxes and other government charges including, but not limited to, all sales, use or excise taxes, and all customs duties, fees or charges. To the extent that value added tax (or any equivalent tax) is properly chargeable on the supply to Purchaser of any Goods, Purchaser shall pay such tax as an addition to payments otherwise due Supplier under this Purchase Order, provided that Supplier provides to Purchaser a value added tax (or equivalent tax) invoice.

12. Price: Most Favored Customer and Meet or Release

Supplier warrants that the prices charged for the Goods delivered under this Purchase Order are the lowest prices charged by Supplier to any of its external customers for similar volumes of similar Goods. If Supplier charges any external customer a lower price for a similar volume of similar Goods, Supplier must notify Purchaser and apply that price to all Goods ordered under this Purchase Order. If at any time prior to full performance of this Purchase Order Purchaser notifies Supplier in writing that Purchaser has received a written offer from another supplier for Goods similar to those to be provided under this Purchase Order at a price lower than the price set forth in this Purchase Order, Supplier is obligated to immediately meet the lower price for any undelivered Goods. If Supplier fails to meet the lower price Purchaser, at its option, may terminate the balance of this Purchase Order without liability.

13. Spare Parts Pricing

During the term Goods are supplied hereunder and for a period of 15 years after Purchaser has completed the last purchase of Goods, Supplier will supply all of Purchaser's service and replacement parts for the Goods at the last valid price plus any actual cost differential for manufacturing and packaging, such cost differential to be negotiated but in no case to exceed 20 percent (20%) of the last production price paid by Purchaser.

14. Invoicing and Payment

After each shipment made or service provided, Supplier will submit an invoice listing a description of the Goods provided and, as applicable, part numbers, quantity, and unit of measure, hours, and the unit and total prices. Any incidental charges such as royalties, selling commissions, non-recurring engineering, or other incidental charges must be separately itemized and identified on the invoice. The invoice must also include the following information in English, or in the destination country's official language if required: (a) name and address of Supplier and the Purchaser entity purchasing the Goods; (b) name of shipper (if different from Supplier); (c) Purchaser's Purchase Order number(s); (d) country of export; (e) detailed description of the Goods; (f) Harmonized Tariff Schedule number; (g) country of origin (manufacturer) of the Goods, or if multiple countries of origin, the country of origin of each part shipped; (h) weights of the Goods shipped; (i) currency in which the sale was made; (j) payment terms; (k) shipment terms used; and (l) all rebates or discounts. The invoice will be accompanied (if applicable) by a signed bill of lading or express receipt evidencing shipment. Payment of an invoice does not constitute acceptance of the Goods and is subject to appropriate adjustment should Supplier fail to meet the requirements of this Purchase Order. Payment terms are net 45 days from receipt of invoice and conforming Goods, whichever is later, unless otherwise stated on the face of this Purchase Order or other written agreement executed by both parties. Payment will be scheduled for the first payment cycle following the net terms for the Purchase Order.

15. Setoff

In addition to any right of setoff or recoupment provided by applicable law, all amounts due Supplier shall be considered net of indebtedness of Supplier and/or its affiliates/subsidiaries to Purchaser and/or its affiliates/subsidiaries; and Purchaser may deduct any amounts due or to become due from Supplier and/or its affiliates/subsidiaries to Purchaser and/or its affiliates/subsidiaries from any sums due or to become due from Purchaser and/or its affiliates/subsidiaries. If an obligation of Supplier is disputed, contingent or unliquidated, Purchaser may defer payment of all or any portion of an amount due until such dispute or contingency is resolved or the obligation is liquidated. In the event of Supplier's bankruptcy, if all of the Purchase Orders between Purchaser and Supplier have not been assumed (under applicable bankruptcy law), then Purchaser may withhold payment to Supplier for Goods previously delivered (via administrative hold or otherwise) until the risk of potential rejection and other damages is eliminated.

16. Quality Assurance

Supplier agrees to allow Purchaser, during normal business hours, to make reasonable inspections of the facilities where Supplier and its sub-tier suppliers manufacture or process the Goods.

17. Inspection

17.1. All Goods may, but are not required to, be inspected and tested by Purchaser, its customers, higher tier contractors, and end users at all reasonable times and places. If such inspection or testing is made on Supplier's premises, Supplier will provide, without additional charge, all reasonable facilities and assistance required for such inspections and tests. In its standard inspection and testing of the Goods, Supplier will use an inspection system accepted by Purchaser in writing. All inspection records, including sub-tier supplier records relating to the Goods, will be maintained and made available to Purchaser during the performance of this Purchase Order, and for such longer periods as may be specified by Purchaser.

17.2. Notwithstanding any prior inspection at Supplier's premises, the manner and place of final inspection and acceptance by Purchaser will be as determined by Purchaser in its sole discretion. Purchaser may inspect 100% or a sample of Goods, at Purchaser's option, and may reject all or any portion of the Goods or lot of Goods if Purchaser determines them to be defective or nonconforming. If Purchaser performs any inspection (other than the standard inspection) due to discovery of defective or non-conforming Goods, any additional inspection costs will be paid by Supplier. No inspection, tests, approval, design approval or acceptance of the Goods relieves Supplier from responsibility for warranty or any latent defects, fraud or negligence. If the Goods are defective or otherwise not in conformity with the requirements of this Purchase Order, Purchaser may, by notice to Supplier: (a) rescind this Purchase Order as to such Goods; (b) accept such Goods at an equitable reduction in price; or (c) reject such Goods and require the delivery of replacements. Delivery of replacements will be accompanied by a notice specifying that such

Goods are replacements. If Supplier fails to deliver required replacements promptly, Purchaser may: (x) correct any retained defective or nonconforming Goods at Supplier's expense; (y) replace them with Goods from another supplier and charge the Supplier the cost thereof, including cover and any incidental costs; or (z) terminate this Purchase Order for cause.

18. Warranty

18.1. Supplier warrants to Purchaser and its successors, assigns, customers and end users that, upon delivery, and during the entire Warranty Period specified below, all Goods furnished (including all replacement or corrected Goods or components which Supplier furnishes pursuant to this warranty) will: (a) be free from defects in material, workmanship, and design, even if the design has been approved by Purchaser; (b) conform to applicable drawings, designs, quality control plans, specifications and samples and other descriptions furnished or specified by Purchaser; (c) be merchantable; (d) be fit for the intended purposes, to the extent the Goods are not of a detailed design furnished by Purchaser, and operate as intended; (e) comply with all applicable national and local laws; (f) be free and clear of any and all liens, restrictions, reservations, security interests or encumbrances; and (g) not infringe any patent, published patent application, or other intellectual property rights of any third party existing as of the date of delivery, and not utilize misappropriated third party trade secret information. Services will be performed in accordance with the highest standards in the industry. The Warranty Period will be for a period of 36 months from the date of delivery to the end user or such longer period of time as may have been accepted by Purchaser from Purchaser's customer or the date on which any longer or broader government requirement covering the Goods ends. These warranties will survive any delivery, inspection, acceptance or payment by Purchaser for the entire Warranty Period. Claims for breach of warranty do not accrue until discovery of noncompliance, even if the Goods were previously inspected. The warranties provided are cumulative and in addition to any warranty provided by law or equity. Any applicable statute of limitations runs from the date of discovery. Goods that meet the preceding standards are collectively called "conforming Goods." If conforming Goods are not furnished within the time specified by Purchaser then Purchaser may, at its election and in addition to any other rights or remedies it may have at law or in equity, have the nonconforming Goods repaired, replaced or corrected at Supplier's expense. In addition to the costs of repairing, replacing or correcting nonconforming Goods, Supplier is responsible for all related costs, expenses and damages including, but not limited to: the costs of removal, disassembly, failure analysis, fault isolation, reinstallation, re-inspection and retrofit of the nonconforming Goods or of Purchaser's affected end-product; all freight charges; all customer charges; and all corrective action costs (i.e., costs of additional inspection or quality control systems). Unless setoff by Purchaser, Supplier will reimburse Purchaser for all such costs upon receipt of Purchaser's invoice.

18.2. Supplier accepts that breach of warranty can be calculated using statistical methods based upon representative samples as utilized by Purchaser in its reasonable discretion.

18.3. These warranties, and all other warranties, express or implied, survive delivery, inspection, acceptance and payment.

19. Recall

Supplier is liable for all costs or damages associated with any voluntary or involuntary recall of defective or potentially defective Goods or any products containing or incorporating such Goods including, but not limited to, recalls by a customer, regulatory agency or in accordance with applicable laws or regulations. Supplier will be solely responsible for administering any recall or will fully participate in the administration of any recall conducted by Purchaser or its customer in relation to Goods as Purchaser may so direct. Each party will cooperate in making available records and other information reasonably required by the other party in connection with any recall. This Section 19 will survive any termination or expiration of this Purchase Order and apply for at least the same duration as Purchaser's obligation to its customer(s).

20. Changes

Purchaser may: direct changes in the drawings, designs, specifications, method of shipment or packing, quantity, or time or place of delivery of the Goods; reschedule the services; or require additional or diminished services. Only authorized Purchaser representatives may issue changes, in writing, to the Purchase Order. If any change causes an increase or decrease in the cost of, or the time required for, performing this Purchase Order, an equitable adjustment will be made in the Purchase Order price, delivery dates or both, and this Purchase Order will be modified in writing accordingly. Any claim for adjustment under this provision may, at Purchaser's option, be deemed to be waived unless asserted in writing (including the amount of the claim) and delivered to Purchaser within 30 days from the date of the receipt by Supplier of the Purchaser-directed change to the Purchase Order. If the cost of property made obsolete or excess as a result of a change is paid by Purchaser, Purchaser may prescribe the manner of disposition of the property. Notwithstanding any disagreement between the parties regarding the impact of a change, Supplier will proceed diligently with its performance under this Purchase Order pending resolution of the disagreement.

21. Design and Process Changes

Supplier will make no changes to the design, materials, manufacturing location, sub-tier suppliers, or processes specified in this Purchase Order or documents referenced therein, or if none, those in place at time of issuance of this Purchase Order, without the advance written approval of Purchaser's authorized representative. Changes to a process include, but are not limited to, changes to the production process, changes in manufacturing equipment, or changes between a manual and automated process. This requirement applies whether or not there is a cost impact associated with the change and regardless of the type of change, including product improvements.

22. Stop Work

Purchaser may, at any time by notice and at no cost, require Supplier to stop all or any part of the work under this Purchase Order for a period of up to 120 days (Stop Work Order), and for any further period on which Supplier and Purchaser may agree. Immediately upon receipt of a Stop Work Order, Supplier will comply with its terms. At any time during the stop work period, Purchaser may, in whole or in part, either cancel the Stop Work Order or terminate the work in accordance with the Termination section of this Purchase Order. To the extent the Stop Work Order is canceled or expires, Supplier must resume work.

23. Termination

23.1. In addition to any rights of Company under applicable law, Company may, upon written notice to Supplier, terminate this Purchase Order, in whole or in part, if Supplier (a) fails to deliver the Goods in the manner and within the time specified in the Order; (b) repudiates Supplier's obligations under the terms of this Agreement or any Purchase Order; or (c) commits any other material breach of this Purchase Order and such breach is not cured within 30 calendar days following Supplier's receipt of written notice specifying the grounds for the breach. The solvent party may terminate this Purchase Order upon notice if the other party becomes insolvent or if any petition is filed or proceedings commenced by or against that party relating to bankruptcy, receivership, reorganization, or assignment for the benefit of creditors. Termination of this Purchase Order by Purchaser under this Section 23.1 will entitle Purchaser to all damages and remedies available at law or equity. Additionally, Supplier grants to Purchaser a fully paid up, non-exclusive, irrevocable license to Supplier's Intellectual Property rights embodied or used in the Goods for Purchaser to make, have made and sell Goods using such Intellectual Property rights to fulfill Purchaser's obligations to Purchaser's customer(s).

23.2. Notwithstanding any firm time period or quantity, Purchaser may terminate this Purchase Order, in whole or in part, at any time with or without cause with respect to undelivered Goods or unperformed services upon 30 days' prior notice.

23.3. If Purchaser terminates this Purchase Order under either Section 23.1 or 23.2 above, Purchaser's sole liability to Supplier, and Supplier's sole and exclusive remedy, is payment for Goods ordered, received and accepted by Purchaser prior to the date of termination, payment for which can be set off against any damages to Purchaser. Upon termination, Purchaser may require Supplier to transfer title and deliver to Purchaser any completed Goods and Purchaser will pay the Purchase Order price for such Goods subject to set off against any damages to Purchaser. In no event, however, will payments made under this paragraph exceed the aggregate price payable by Purchaser for finished Goods which would be produced by Supplier under the release(s) outstanding at the date of termination. Except to the extent provided in this paragraph, Purchaser is not liable for and shall not be required to make payments to Supplier, directly or on account of claims by Supplier's subcontractors, for loss of anticipated profit, unabsorbed overhead, interest on claims, product development and engineering costs, facilities and equipment rearrangement costs or rental, unamortized depreciation costs and general and administrative burden charges from termination of the Purchase Order. Within sixty (60) days from the effective date of termination, Supplier must submit to Purchaser a comprehensive termination claim, with sufficient supporting data to permit Purchaser's audit, and shall thereafter promptly furnish such supplemental and supporting information as Purchaser shall request. Purchaser, or its agents, will have the right to audit and examine all books, records, facilities, work, material, inventories and other items relating to Supplier's termination claim. Purchaser may also require Supplier to transfer title and deliver to Purchaser any or all property produced or procured by Supplier for performance of this Purchase Order and Supplier will be credited with the reasonable value thereof not to exceed Supplier's actual cost or the Purchase Order value, whichever is less.

23.4. In the event of a termination of this Purchase Order, Supplier agrees to fully assist and cooperate in Purchaser's resourcing of the Goods to one or more alternative suppliers to avoid production disruption, including, without limitation, by providing Purchaser and its agents, representatives, designees, consultants, officers, employees, and successor suppliers with: (a) immediate access to Supplier's facilities to inspect current production processes; (b) access to Supplier's facilities to inspect, prepare to transport, and remove Purchaser Property and any applicable Supplier Property, including access to Supplier's books and records relating to such property; and (c) assistance (at Supplier's cost) in preparing, loading, and removing such property from Supplier's facilities. In addition, Supplier will allow Purchaser to utilize Supplier's employees, machinery, and equipment as reasonably necessary to accomplish the foregoing and as is necessary to complete the resourcing. Without limiting the foregoing, in the event of a termination of this Purchase Order for any reason, Supplier must (x) take all actions necessary to protect any of the Purchase Property in the possession of the Supplier or its suppliers and subcontractors; (y) transfer title and possession of the Goods, work-in-progress and raw materials that the Purchaser has agreed to acquire from the Supplier, if any; and (z) if requested by Purchaser, build an inventory bank of Goods in sufficient quantity to avoid production disruption and to support Purchaser's resourcing of the Goods to one or more alternative suppliers.

23.5. With respect to any intellectual property of Supplier, if Purchaser terminates this Purchase Order under Section 23.1 or 23.2, Supplier grants to Purchaser a non-exclusive, world-wide, paid-up, perpetual, irrevocable, royalty-free license, with the right to grant sublicenses, under any intellectual property of Supplier that is incorporated into or used to make or design the Goods to make, have made, sell, offer for sale, import or export or modify such Goods. The license granted to Purchaser under this Section 23.5 will remain in effect for the life of the applicable vehicle or other product program(s) in which such Goods are utilized (now or in the future), including any service parts thereof. In addition, upon written request from Purchaser, Supplier will provide the following for such Goods: (a) any design aids, including without limitation, any computer aided design data and design aids, (b) specifications, (c) bills of material, (d) Supplier information for any purchased components used in such Goods, and (e) manufacturing process information regarding such Goods.

23.6. To the extent that any portion of this Purchase Order is not terminated pursuant to Section 23.1 or 23.2 above, Supplier will continue performance of that portion not terminated.

24. General Indemnification and No Exclusivity or Non-Compete Arrangement

24.1 Supplier will, at its expense, defend, indemnify, hold harmless, and pay or reimburse Purchaser and its subsidiaries, affiliates and agents, and their respective officers, directors, shareholders, and employees, and Purchaser's customers (collectively "Indemnitees") from and against any and all loss, cost, expense, damage, claim, demand or liability, including reasonable attorney and professional fees and costs and the cost of settlement, compromise, judgment or verdict incurred by or demanded of an Indemnitee arising out of, resulting from or occurring in connection with Supplier's actual or alleged negligence, willful misconduct, or breach of the terms of this Purchase Order.
